GATHERING

Welcome and Announcements
Prelude "God Is Our Strong Salvation" -arr. Franklin Ritter
*The Confession & Forgiveness
In the name of the Father, and of the (+) Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

God of all mercy and consolation, come to the help of your people, turning us from our sin to live for you alone. Give us the power of your Holy Spirit that we may confess our sin, receive your forgiveness, and grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another. (we kneel)

Silence is kept for reflection.

Most merciful God, we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the (+) Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Psalm 96

(sung responsively)

Sing to the LORD | a new song;
sing to the LORD, | all the earth.
[2]Sing to the LORD, bless the name | of the LORD;
proclaim God's salvation from | day to day.
[3]Declare God's glory a- | mong the nations
and God's wonders a- | mong all peoples.
[4]For great is the LORD and greatly | to be praised,
more to be feared | than all gods.
[5]As for all the gods of the nations, they | are but idols;
but you, O LORD, have | made the heavens.
[6]Majesty and magnificence are | in your presence;
power and splendor are in your | sanctuary.
[7]Ascribe to the LORD, you families | of the peoples,
ascribe to the LORD hon- | or and power.
[8]Ascribe to the LORD the honor due the | holy name;
bring offerings and enter the courts | of the LORD.
[9]Worship the LORD in the beau- | ty of holiness;
tremble before the LORD, | all the earth.
[[10]Tell it out among the nations: "The | LORD is king!
The one who made the world so firm that it cannot be moved will judge the peo- | ples with equity."
[11]Let the heavens rejoice, and let the | earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it;
let the field be joyful and all that | is therein.
[12]Then shall all the trees of the wood
shout for joy at your com- | ing, O LORD,
for you come to | judge the earth.
[13]You will judge the | world with righteousness
and the peoples | with your truth.]

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
The Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

October is BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

Today we wear PINK in honor of all survivors and in memory of loved ones who have been victims of breast cancer.

Trick-or-Treat-So-Others-May-Eat We know that many in our community are struggling with increased in cost of living and subsequent food insecurity. Holy Trinity has worked to help our neighbors facing these issues with our many outreach ministries. One of these ministries has been the Trick-or-Treat-So-Others-May-Eat food drive for AIM. For years, this has been led by the Youth of Holy Trinity. This year, the Youth and the Service Committee will join forces to make this a "whole congregation" campaign. We will be expanding our collections to include several new neighborhoods. To make this a success, we will need drivers, walkers to put out and pick up the bags and donations, as well as folks to help provide lunches on the campaign days. The dates will be today and 25th. There is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex.
If you have any questions or are able to help, please contact Amy Goodson.

The next Wednesday Lunch Bunch will be held on Wednesday, October 28 at 11:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Our speaker will be Stephanie Yelder, the Dementia Care Specialist from the South Carolina Department on Aging. Come join us for this informative session on dementia and the resources available. Lunch will be provided.

LUTHERAN MEN IN MISSION
Supper Meeting
October 26
6:00 p.m.
In Fellowship Hall

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of Intercession
With the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, let us pray for the church, those in need, and all of God's creation. (we kneel)
The Leader concludes each petition with "Lord In Your Mercy," and the response is, "Hear our Prayer."
The Minister concludes the prayers with these words: "Into Your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy; through Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord." Amen.

MEAL

The Offering is Received
The Receiving of the gifts of Time and Talent and Pledges
The Choir Anthem "All That We Have" - Gary Ault/ Gary Daigle

Refrain:
All that we have and all that we offer comes from a heart both frightened and free.
Take what we bring now and give what we need, all done in Your name.

Some would rely on their power, others put trust in their gold.
Some have only their Savior, whose faithfulness never grows old.

Sometimes the road may be lonesome, often we may lose our way.
Take courage and always remember love isn't just for a day. Refrain

Sometimes when troubles are many, life can seem empty, it's true.
But look at the life of the Master, who lovingly suffered for you. Refrain

The Offertory Hymn "Let The Vineyards Be Fruitful" Hymn #181

Let the vineyards be fruitful, Lord, and fill to the brim our cup of blessing.
Gather a harvest from the seeds that were sown, that we may be fed with the bread of life.
Gather the hopes and dreams of all; unite them with the prayers we offer.
Grace our table with Your presence and give us a fore-taste of the feast to come.

*The Blessing of the gifts of Time and Talent and Pledges

*The Prayer (The congregation responds with AMEN.)

*The Great Thanksgiving (sung responsively) page 129

L. The Lord be with you.
C. And also with you.
L. Lift up your hearts.
C. We lift them to the Lord.
L. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
C. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

*Preface of the Day page 130

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise (Here the minister continues with the preface for the day, concluding) … we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

*Sanctus (sung by all) page 130

Holy, holy, holy, Lord, God of power and might, Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

* The Words of Institution page 130

*The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Martin Luther (1483-1546)

We remember Martin Luther, born in 1483, nine years before Columbus discovered America. He studied law at the age of 21; became a priest at 23 and a doctor of theology at 28; wrote and nailed the 95 thesis at age 33 and 34; was ex-communicated and became a fugitive at 38; translated the Bible into German at 40; and died from a stroke at the age of 63, an internationally admired leader. His teachings stressed justification by faith, universal priesthood of believers; and supremacy of scripture which form the cornerstone of Protestantism. [Please wear red on this Sunday.]

Martin Luther was eight years old when Christopher Columbus set sail from Europe and landed in the Western Hemisphere. Luther was a young monk and priest when Michelangelo was painting the Sistine Chapel in Rome. A few years later, he was a junior faculty member at a new university in small-town Germany, intently studying the Scriptures, "captivated with an extraordinary ardor for understanding Paul in the Epistle to the Romans."

In these days Luther was tormented by the demand for righteousness before God. "I did not love, yes, I hated the righteous God who punishes sinners, and secretly, if not blasphemously, certainly murmuring greatly, I was angry with God." Then, in the midst of that struggle with God, the message of the Scriptures became clear, like a long-shut door opening wide. When he realized that a "merciful God justifies us by faith … I felt that I was altogether born again and had entered paradise itself through open gates."

What Luther discovered is the freedom of Christians trusting God's mercy in Christ. As he later wrote, "Faith is God's work in us. It changes us and makes us to be born anew of God. This faith is a living, busy, active, mighty thing. It is impossible for it not to be doing good works incessantly. Faith is a living, daring confidence in God's grace, so sure and certain that believers would stake their lives on it a thousand times."

This discovery set Luther's life on a new course —both his own life and his public service as a preacher and teacher. When a church-endorsed sales team came to the Wittenberg area in October, 1517, Luther was concerned that the promotion and sale of indulgences undermined the promise of God's unreserved mercy in Jesus and the faith that trusts that promise. His 95 Theses or Disputation on the Power and Efficacy of Indulgences became the first of a life-long stream of books, sermons, letters, essays, even hymns in which he expressed his confidence in this life-giving promise from God, the Gospel, and its liberating implications for all of life in church and society. [Please wear red on October 25, Reformation Sunday.]

The Communion

Invited to commune at this altar are all baptized believers. Children not yet receiving Holy Communion are invited to come with their families to receive a blessing. On the way up, you are to pick up a cup and bring it to the altar. Prefilled cups in the center of the tray contain grape juice; otherwise wine will be dispensed at the altar into empty cups. Gluten free wafers are available as needed. Please notify the Pastor. To have the elements brought to you for communion, please notify an Usher. It would be helpful if you would sit on the front pew or on the aisle. As you go to the altar for communion, you are invited to dip your fingers into the water of the Baptismal Font and make a sign of the cross on your forehead in remembrance of your baptism.
