GATHERING

Welcome and Announcements

Prelude

“Let Us Break Bread”

-arr. Paul Taylor

*The Confession & Forgiveness

In the name of the Father, and of the (+) Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

God of all mercy and consolation, come to the help of your people, turning us from our sin to live for you alone. Give us the power of your Holy Spirit that we may confess our sin, receive your forgiveness, and grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another. (we kneel)

Silence is kept for reflection.

Most merciful God, we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the (+) Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Psalm 80

(sung responsively)

Restore us, O ¹ God of hosts;
let your face shine upon us, and we ¹ shall be saved.
⁸ You have brought a vine ¹ out of Egypt;
you cast out the nations and ¹ planted it.
⁹ You cleared the ¹ ground for it;
it took root and ¹ filled the land.
¹⁰ The mountains were covered ¹ by its shadow
and the towering cedar trees ¹ by its boughs.
¹¹ You stretched out its tendrils ¹ to the sea
and its branches ¹ to the river.
¹² Why have you broken ¹ down its wall,
so that all who pass by pluck ¹ off its grapes?
¹³ The wild boar of the forest has ¹ ravaged it,
and the beasts of the field have ¹ grazed upon it.
¹⁴ Turn now, O ¹ God of hosts,
look ¹ down from heaven;
¹⁵ behold and ¹ tend this vine;
preserve what your right ¹ hand has planted.

*The Gospel Acclamation (sung by all) Alleluia. Jesus says, I chose you and ap ' pointed you to go and bear fruit ' that will last. Alleluia.

The Nicene Creed
We believe in one God,
The Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

How will YOU use YOUR gifts?

Matthew 25:40 “...Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me.”

Jesus reminds us in Matthew that every kindness we offer to another is offered directly to Him. God has entrusted each of us with gifts we use every day – abilities that shape our homes, our work and our community. When we bring those everyday strengths into our church we flourish, and each gift we share becomes an act of love that honors Christ Himself.

We strengthen our church when we share our gifts. Some of us serve by teaching or leading, while others cook, organize, offer practical help or encourage others. Many serve simply by showing up faithfully and consistently with a heart ready to support others. These gifts are not only responsibilities, but they are also expressions of love that build up our fellowship and help us live out our mission to help those in need. Offering your gifts help create a church where people feel welcomed, supported, and spiritually nourished. Ministry is never the work of a few; it is the shared offering of many hands and hearts working together for God’s glory.

Your prayers are a gift to our church. Prayer is a powerful contribution as we pray for our leaders, ministries, those who struggle, and for God’s guidance. Your financial giving is also an important gift that helps to support the mission, ministries, and the daily life of the church. But generosity is broader than money. Generosity is sharing what you have, offering resources, and giving in ways that bless others quietly and faithfully.

Take a moment this week to consider where your gifts might bless our church family and our community. Step into one place of service, large or small, and trust that God will use your gifts to strengthen our congregation. Consider how your support will help us to become the church God is calling us to be. How will YOU use YOUR gifts to help the least of God’s brothers and sisters as you give to Him?

The Communion
Invited to commune at this altar are all baptized believers. Children not yet receiving Holy Communion are invited to come with their families to receive a blessing. On the way up, you are to pick up a cup and bring it to the altar. Prefilled cups in the center of the tray contain grape juice; otherwise wine will be dispensed at the altar into empty cups. Gluten free wafers are available as needed. Please notify the Pastor. To have the elements brought to you for communion, please notify an Usher. It would be helpful if you would sit on the front pew or on the aisle. As you go to the altar for communion, you are invited to dip your fingers into the water of the Baptismal Font and make a sign of the cross on your forehead in remembrance of your baptism.

TIME: 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

Martin Luther (1483-1546)

We remember Martin Luther, born in 1483, nine years before Columbus discovered America. He studied law at the age of 21; became a priest at 23 and a doctor of theology at 28; wrote and nailed the 95 thesis at age 33 and 34; was ex-communicated and became a fugitive at 38; translated the Bible into German at 40; and died from a stroke at the age of 63, an internationally admired leader. His teachings stressed justification by faith, universal priesthood of believers; and supremacy of scripture which form the cornerstone of Protestantism. [Please wear red on this Sunday.]

Martin Luther was eight years old when Christopher Columbus set sail from Europe and landed in the Western Hemisphere. Luther was a young monk and priest when Michelangelo was painting the Sistine Chapel in Rome. A few years later, he was a junior faculty member at a new university in small-town Germany, intently studying the Scriptures, “captivated with an extraordinary ardor for understanding Paul in the Epistle to the Romans.”

In these days Luther was tormented by the demand for righteousness before God. “I did not love, yes, I hated the righteous God who punishes sinners, and secretly, if not blasphemously, certainly murmuring greatly, I was angry with God.” Then, in the midst of that struggle with God, the message of the Scriptures became clear, like a long-shut door opening wide. When he realized that a “merciful God justifies us by faith ... I felt that I was altogether born again and had entered paradise itself through open gates.”

What Luther discovered is the freedom of Christians trusting God’s mercy in Christ. As he later wrote, “Faith is God’s work in us. It changes us and makes us to be born anew of God. This faith is a living, busy, active, mighty thing. It is impossible for it not to be doing good works incessantly. Faith is a living, daring confidence in God’s grace, so sure and certain that believers would stake their lives on it a thousand times.”

This discovery set Luther’s life on a new course —both his own life and his public service as a preacher and teacher. When a church-endorsed sales team came to the Wittenberg area in October, 1517, Luther was concerned that the promotion and sale of indulgences undermined the promise of God’s unreserved mercy in Jesus and the faith that trusts that promise. His 95 Theses or Disputation on the Power and Efficacy of Indulgences became the first of a life-long stream of books, sermons, letters, essays, even hymns in which he expressed his confidence in this life-giving promise from God, the Gospel, and its liberating implications for all of life in church and society. [Please wear red on October 25, Reformation Sunday.]

Trick -or-Treat- So- Others- May- Eat We know that many in our community are struggling with increased in cost of living and subsequent food insecurity. Holy Trinity has worked to help our neighbors facing these issues with our many outreach ministries. One of these ministries has been the Trick or Treat so Others May Eat food drive for AIM. For years, this has been led by the Youth of Holy Trinity. This year, the Youth and the Service Committee will join forces to make this a "whole congregation" campaign. We will be expanding our collections to include several new neighborhoods. To make this a success, we will need drivers, walkers to put out and pick up the bags and donations, as well as folks to help provide lunches on the campaign days. The dates will be October 18th and 25th. There will be a sign-up sheet in the narthex if you would like to help on one or both days. As always, we will do a congregational collection as well.

If you have any questions or are able to help, please contact Amy Goodson.

October is BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

On Sunday, October 18TH everyone is asked to wear PINK in honor of all survivors and in memory of loved ones who have been victims of breast cancer.
